THE PROPERTY

Lato Boutique Hotel is one of the most popular hotels in Heraklion City, at the great island of Crete.

This is mainly due to the property's exquisite location, just opposite the old city harbour, offering spectacular panoramic views to the Venetian Fortress, as well as to the high quality of services offered and the unique aesthetics and functional comforts of facilities provided.

Combining modern tendencies of architecture, decoration and technology with luxury and relaxation, LATO is the perfect choice for Heraklion visitors.

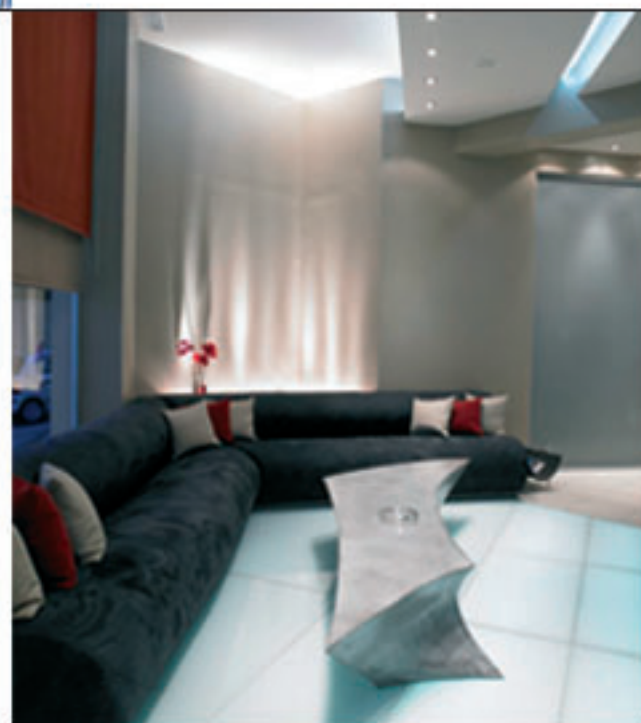

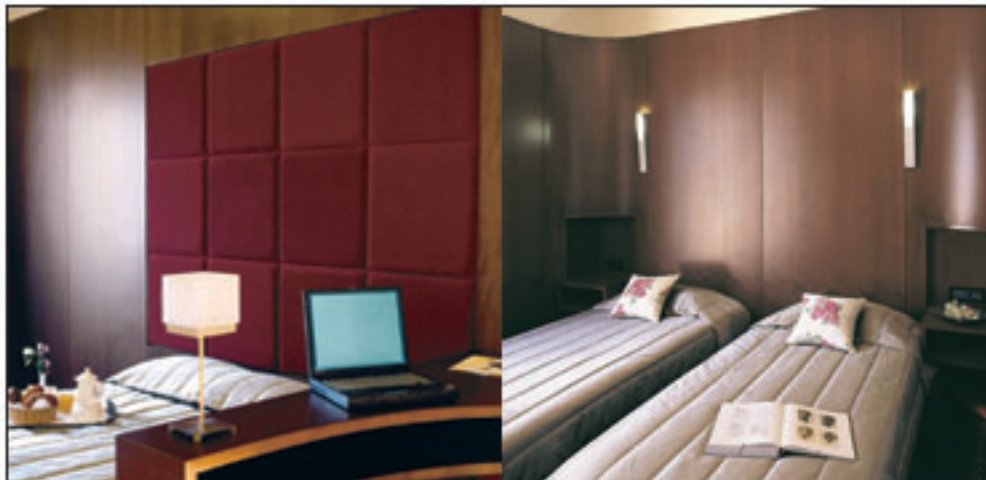

THE STANDARDS

Always in accordance with a set quality management system, as well as with a HACCP management system, both certified by TUV Austria Hellas against en ISO 9001:2000 and ELOT 1416:2000 accordingly, the hotel management team ensures that the guests will receive accommodation and dining of international standards.

Operating since 1978, Lato has followed a renovation program for almost 10 years that has transformed the property into a fine boutique hotel.

Lato Boutique Hotel is the leader of its kind in Greece, having created a trend in the local hotel industry, setting much higher standards for quality and aesthetics in accommodation at Heraklion City, in Crete Island.
